who made them or are based on my review of records, documents and other physical evidence obtained during the course of this investigation.

3. This affidavit is intended to show only that there is sufficient probable cause for the requested warrant and does not set forth all of my knowledge about this matter.

4. As further described below, this affidavit is made in support of an application for a seizure warrant for funds described in the heading of this affidavit above that are subject to civil forfeiture under 21 United States Code, Section 881(a)(6), which includes "all proceeds traceable to" an exchange of money for drugs. There is probable cause to show that Jayson MICKLE invested the proceeds of his drug trafficking organization into real property. MICKLE, through property management companies to include MICKLE MANAGEMENT LLC, leased the properties purchased with drug proceeds in order to generate a seemingly legitimate income stream. The revenue generated through MICKLE's property management companies to include MICKLE MANAGEMENT LLC also remains subject to civil forfeiture under Title 18, United States Code, 981(a)(1)(A) as property involved in concealment money laundering, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(a)(1)(B)(i). The funds are subject to seizure under Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(b)(1) and Title 21, United States Code, Section 881(b).

5. Your affiant's responsibilities in the MICKLE investigation involve the identification of criminally derived assets belonging to Jayson MICKLE and his co-conspirators. Your affiant has participated in the above captioned investigation since October 2014.

PROBABLE CAUSE

6. On June 27, 2016, Jayson MICKLE signed a Statement of Facts that was submitted in conjunction with a plea agreement whereby MICKLE pled guilty to criminal charges associated with Eastern District of Virginia criminal case no. 4:15-cr-18. Specifically, MICKLE pled guilty to conspiracy to distribute and possess with intent to distribute controlled substances and controlled substance analogues, in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846. A fair and accurate copy of the Statement of Facts is attached to this affidavit and is labeled EXHIBIT

1. In the statement of facts, MICKLE admitted to operating businesses in the Hampton Roads area that retailed and wholesaled smokeable synthetic cannabinoids, commonly known as “Spice” in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846.

7. MICKLE admitted to using his spice proceeds to invest in real properties which he rented out. MICKLE leased these properties through property management companies to include MICKLE MANAGEMENT LLC, a property management company of which he was the owner.

8. MICKLE agreed to the forfeiture of these real properties in a Consent Order of Forfeiture dated June 27, 2016. A fair and accurate copy of the Consent Order of Forfeiture is attached to this affidavit and is labeled EXHIBIT 2.

9. During the pendency of MICKLE’s criminal charges and related forfeiture matters, MICKLE’s property management companies were permitted to continue managing the aforementioned real properties, which were later forfeited in the above-described Consent Order of Forfeiture.

10. On March 15, 2017, a Final Order of Forfeiture was entered in Jayson MICKLE’s case, which finalized the forfeiture of 26 pieces of real property, including properties managed by MICKLE’s property management companies described above. A fair and accurate copy of that Final Order of Forfeiture is attached to this affidavit as EXHIBIT 3.

11. On April 10, 2017, Special Agents with ICE HSI took steps to seize the properties listed in the Final Order of Forfeiture. The process of seizing the properties and executing on the Final Order of Forfeiture is ongoing.

12. On April 27, 2017, your affiant received information from MICKLE’s Property Manager that he had received Jones Lang Lasalle Americas Inc./Bank of America check #554429 in the amount of $7,983.10 payable to Mickle Management LLC. MICKLE’s Property Manager advised that these funds represented Bank of America’s rental payment for the 1 West Queens

Way building located in the City of Hampton. The property at 1 West Queens Way was included in both the aforementioned Consent Order of Forfeiture and the Final Order of Forfeiture. As mentioned above, the Final Order of Forfeiture in MICKLE's case was entered on March 15, 2017. The $7,983.10 check which the government seeks to seize here was dated April 19, 2017. As set forth in the Final Order of Forfeiture at paragraphs 1 and 14, upon entry of that order, all right, title and interest in the properties listed in the order passed to the United States, consistent with the provisions of Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(n)(7). As such, the $7,983.10 check which the government seeks to seize, representing a rent payment for 1 West Queens Way, really should have been made payable to the United States in the first place, given that it was drawn over a month after the United States took clear title to 1 West Queens Way. In other words, by April 2017, the United States had become the landlord for 1 West Queens Way.

13. As MICKLE stipulated in his statement of facts, the real properties listed in the forfeiture allegation of the second superseding indictment, which include 1 West Queens Way, were purchased with spice proceeds. MICKLE also stipulated that he rented those properties out. From those rentals, MICKLE collected rent payments through his property management companies like MICKLE MANAGEMENT LLC. The $7,983.10 check which the government seeks to seize here represents one such rental payment.

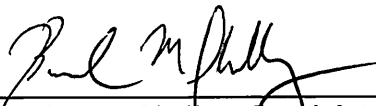

14. Based on your affiant's training and experience and the facts of this investigation, including those facts admitted by Jayson MICKLE in his statement of facts, the funds represented by Jones Lang Lasalle Americas Inc./Bank of America check #554429 in the amount of $7,983.10 payable to Mickle Management LLC constitute both the proceeds of drug trafficking and property involved in concealment money laundering. I am told that the case law indicates that income generated by proceeds is also considered proceeds. These funds are subject to civil forfeiture under Title 21, United States Code, Section 881(a)(6), which provides for the forfeiture of "all proceeds traceable to" an exchange of money for drugs. Furthermore, since MICKLE took his drug money and invested it into real properties in an attempt to have a seemingly legitimate income stream, the funds are also subject to civil forfeiture under Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(a)(1)(A) as property involved in concealment money laundering.

LRL

15. Civil seizure of the funds is authorized under Title 18, United States Code, Section 981(b)(1) and Title 21, United States Code, Section 881(b).

16. Based on the foregoing, your affiant respectfully requests that a seizure warrant be issued for the Jones Lang Lasalle Americas Inc./Bank of America check #554429 in the amount of $7,983.10 payable to Mickle Management LLC. Upon execution of the seizure warrant, your affiant plans to return the aforementioned check to Jones Lang Lasalle Americas Inc./Bank of America with instructions to void that check and send a new check in the same amount payable to Department of Homeland Security/Customs and Border Protection. An "attachment A" is included with the seizure warrant with instructions to this effect.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA
Newport News Division

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)

v.)

JAYSON MICKLE,) Defendant)

Criminal No. 4:15-cr-18

STATEMENT OF FACTS

The parties stipulate that the allegations in Count One of the Second Superseding Indictment and the following facts are true and correct, and that had the matter gone to trial the United States would have proven them beyond a reasonable doubt by admissible evidence, consisting of the following:

1. Defendant JAYSON MICKLE was assisted by his father and co-defendant David Jay Mickle in starting Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs. In late 2008, the two opened up Hampton Pipe and Tobacco, which had its first stores in Norfolk and Hampton. The Norfolk store closed in 2010. JAYSON MICKLE began as a fifty percent owner of Hampton Pipe and Tobacco, with the other fifty percent being owned by David Jay Mickle.
2. JAYSON MICKLE also started as a one-third owner of Blazin Herbs. JAYSON MICKLE, David Jay Mickle, and Margaret Cooper began Blazin Herbs in the summer of 2010.
3. Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs were both businesses that sold synthetic cannabinoids, commonly referred to as "spice." Spice mimics the effects of THC, the active ingredient in marijuana. Hampton Pipe and Tobacco was the retail operation, whereas Blazin Herbs, later 7 City Gifts, was a wholesale operation.

AJP

4. JAYSON MICKLE bought out David Jay Mickle's interest in both operations in 2011 and compensated David Jay Mickle through disbursements from the companies based on the companies' quarterly profits. These disbursements to David Jay Mickle continued into 2013.
5. JAYSON MICKLE bought out Cooper's interest in Blazin Herbs in November 2011.
6. After the Norfolk store closed, Hampton Pipe and Tobacco had three remaining storefront locations. The main Hampton Pipe and Tobacco retail store was located at 86 West Mercury Boulevard in Hampton. The two other storefront locations were in Newport News and Gloucester County. Across the street from the Hampton Pipe and Tobacco store in Hampton was the Hampton Pipe and Tobacco/Blazin Herbs warehouse, located at 85 West Mercury Boulevard. JAYSON MICKLE, David Jay Mickle, Margaret Cooper and others used the warehouse at 85 West Mercury Boulevard to store spice and paraphernalia inventory for both Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs. Whereas 86 West Mercury Boulevard was open to the public, 85 West Mercury Boulevard was not. JAYSON MICKLE and David Jay Mickle jointly owned the warehouse premises at 85 West Mercury Boulevard. The stores in Newport News and Gloucester were rented, as was 86 West Mercury Boulevard.
7. The wholesale operation, Blazin Herbs, had both a local and a national presence. Blazin Herbs had a website, which JAYSON MICKLE and Phillip Gibson used to make sales of spice throughout the United States. Jake Pham was a wholesale representative making national sales, but was not part of the website sales. Blazin Herbs used the mail to ship the spice to various locations in the United States. Likewise, both Blazin Herbs and Hampton Pipe and Tobacco ordered and received wholesale shipments of spice through the mail. In addition, JAYSON MICKLE, Margaret Cooper, Phillip Gibson, Jake Pham, and others also sold spice wholesale in the Hampton Roads area through the Blazin Herbs operation.

8. In about April 2013, Blazin Herbs became 7 City Gifts, though the activities of the business remained the same after the name change. The majority of its wholesale sales were spice.
9. In about April 2014, JAYSON MICKLE sold Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and 7 City Gifts to a third party. Throughout his ownership and control of Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts, JAYSON MICKLE, Phillip Gibson, Jake Pham, David Jay Mickle, Margaret Cooper and others sold spice blends with names such as Headtrip, Hedgehog, Hampster Purp, Hampster, HPT Cherry, Yella, Easta Pink, Bizarro, Orgazmo, Wet, and Sonic Zero. Hampster, and Hampster Purp were blends of spice created by JAYSON MICKLE and were mostly manufactured by others including co-defendants Charles Burton Ritchie, Benjamin Galecki, and Christopher Ellis.
10. Although Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts marketed this spice as "incense" or "potpourri" that was "not for human consumption," in fact JAYSON MICKLE knew that the spice Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts sold contained synthetic cannabinoid chemicals such as XLR-11, UR-144, PB-22, AM-2201 and AB-FUBINACA, among others. While this spice was labeled "not for human consumption," JAYSON MICKLE knew that this spice he and others at Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts were selling would be smoked by people for the purpose of becoming intoxicated. JAYSON MICKLE instructed his employees that the spice was to be called herbal incense or potpourri. JAYSON MICKLE further advised employees that by law the packets of spice had to be marked "not for human consumption," despite the fact that JAYSON MICKLE knew that the spice was to be smoked for its intoxicating properties.

11. Through Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts, JAYSON MICKLE and others obtained spice for resale from numerous sources. Those sources included co-defendants Charles Burton Ritchie, Benjamin Galecki, Christopher Ellis and others. Ritchie and Galecki operated Zencense Incense Works, a Florida-based company. The company's name was later changed to ZenBio. MICKLE and others obtained such blends of spice as Hampster Purp, HPT Cherry, Bizarro, Sonic Zero, and Orgazmo from Zencense and Zenbio during the period spanning January 2012 to April 2013, often in shipments of several kilograms at a time. The spice sourced through Zencense and ZenBio was then resold in the Hampton Roads area and elsewhere through Hampton Pipe and Tobacco, as well as Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts. Between January 2012 and April 2013, Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts purchased 1,060 kilograms of spice from Zencense/ZenBio for resale.

12. Christopher Ellis and others operated a Utah-based company called Evening Ease, which manufactured spice for JAYSON MICKLE's companies in Virginia. Once Ellis and others obtained the raw spice chemicals and manufactured the spice, Ellis and others would send the spice to Mickle's businesses in the Hampton Roads area. Once received, that spice would be retailed from the Hampton Pipe and Tobacco stores, as well as wholesaled through the Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts operation.

13. In about April 2013, JAYSON MICKLE acquired property at 915 G Street in Hampton, Virginia. The building was acquired, in part, to manufacture spice. JAYSON MICKLE allowed an unindicted co-conspirator to set up a spice manufacturing operation at 915 G Street. When this manufacturing operation at G Street first began, the operation employed approximately seven to ten people who ran the operation for about eight hours per day. By 2014, the G Street operation employed about ten to fifteen people who ran the operation in shifts, manufacturing spice twenty-four hours per day. The G Street operation produced such blends of spice as Hedgehog, Blue Diamond, Pink Diamond and Yella Diamond. These blends contained such chemicals as UR-144, XLR-11, AB-FUBINACA, and AB-PINACA. At times, Justin Calderon assisted in the importation of raw synthetic cannabinoid chemicals used to manufacture the final spice product.
14. Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts also had numerous local wholesale customers in the Hampton Roads area. One of those local wholesale customers was the Red Barn, a gas station and convenience store located in Newport News and run by co-defendants Nader and Sharif Abdallah. From November 2013 to February 2014, 7 City Gifts sold approximately 19 kilograms of spice to the Red Barn. The Red Barn paid a total of $49,667 for those 19 kilograms of spice. That spice sold to the Red Barn included various flavors of Hedgehog, Diamond, and Dr. Feel Good Kush.
15. In addition to selling spice through Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts, JAYSON MICKLE and others would also sell glass smoking devices. Hampton Pipe and Tobacco would often sell spice simultaneously with these glass smoking devices. JAYSON MICKLE manufactured a significant portion of the glass smoking devices through his own outfits such as Angry Monkey Glass and Swagger Glass.

JAYSON MICKLE also obtained additional glass smoking devices for sale from outside vendors.

16. JAYSON MICKLE and others often used the internet and e-mail to market and further the wholesale spice operations of Blazin Herbs and 7 City Gifts to retailers across the United States. During his time working with Mickle at Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts, Phillip Gibson received e-mails from retailers across the country indicating that they had decided not to continue carrying spice in their stores because of issues with the product's legality. Gibson frequently shared these e-mails with JAYSON MICKLE. JAYSON MICKLE knew as early as March 2011 that selling banned spice for human consumption was illegal.

17. JAYSON MICKLE delegated many administrative functions for Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts to his mother, co-defendant Sandra Cooke. Employees were obligated to report to co-defendant Sandra Cooke, who had the title of Operations Manager for Hampton Pipe and Tobacco, as well as Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts. These employees had to report to Cooke at regular intervals, often multiple times per week, and had to confer with Cooke prior to undertaking business transactions on behalf of JAYSON MICKLE's spice outfits. Cooke was also responsible for doing the accounting for Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts and Hampton Pipe and Tobacco. Employees were obligated to furnish sales figures to Cooke and would frequently contact Cooke to locate JAYSON MICKLE.

18. From 2010 through 2012, Hampton Pipe and Tobacco grossed $9,699,428 in spice sales. As time went on Hampton Pipe and Tobacco's competitors began going out of business, often due to law enforcement intervention. As this occurred, Hampton Pipe and Tobacco's spice revenues grew over time.

19. JAYSON MICKLE and his businesses used numerous bank accounts at BB&T and Bank of America, which accounts are listed in the forfeiture allegation of the second superseding indictment. Having amassed significant wealth through Hampton Pipe and Tobacco and Blazin Herbs/7 City Gifts, JAYSON MICKLE took his spice proceeds and reinvested them in other business ventures. One such significant investment for JAYSON MICKLE was real property, which he rented out. JAYSON MICKLE used spice proceeds to purchase at least two dozen real properties for rental, which properties are listed in the forfeiture allegation of the second superseding indictment. JAYSON MICKLE also used his spice proceeds to buy items for himself, including cars, RVs, ATVs, a personal residence located at 69 Chowning Drive in Hampton and a 36 foot boat named the "Slow Dance."
20. JAYSON MICKLE acknowledges that the foregoing statement of facts does not describe all of his conduct relating to the offenses charged in this case, nor does it identify all of the persons with whom he may have engaged in illegal activities.
